

Liberation

I am Freedom-Wings floating on the spot
I am family-regained
I am unexpected Molded-Experience
I am movement-standing-still
I am stillness in motion
I am prisms in space forming space
I am structure unstructured ordered chaos
Of chiseled crystal
Faceted prism
Colour of movement illusion of moving stillness
I am future borrowed simultaneous eternal now
I am bound by the illusion of time
Illusive scattered linear time
In a boundless frame framed painting
A boundless framed painting singing colour emotions
A tree whose branches cradled by nature
Interlocked in her branches blank canvas
The prisms moving the artist to give it form
The picture that drew itself
To the unknowable depiction of the Desire informed every change posture
In time phasing out of space and time
